Cullman Lions Club

March 31, 2025.

Program

Tonight was a 5th Monday and therefore we were served a breakfast-type meal with the usual fare for the occasion. No planned program was planned, other than fellowship and a good meal.

A hearty meal, indeed.

Other Business

Lion Ron Seybold was feeling rough after his latest chemo treatment, but was seen out, later this week about town in better condition.

Lion Claude Clay has been recovering from Covid. His fever broke, but he has lost his sense of smell and taste for the time being.

Lion Raymond Williams Mom passed away. Lion Woody Jacobs' brother has passed; his services were held Saturday, April 5th. Keep these Lions and their families in your prayers.

Lion Sam Roberts asked Lions to assist with parking for the Blooming Festival on April 5th and 6th. A good many Lions did show up to this Saturday to help in this effort.

Lion Sam Roberts asking for Lion volunteer to help parking guests' cars for St. Bernard's Blooming Festival.

The Alabama Lion Sight Mobile Clinic Schedule is April 24, and June 25. Lions help will be needed on those days at Good Samaritan Clinic. Lion Bill Reuhl encouraged any Lion who has not attended one of these Mobile visits to drop by and see what goes on. They start about 8:30AM and usually finish in a few hours. You will be impressed.

Lion Treasurer Don Smith settled up Lion Sam Ruffner's Ham & Fish Dinner ticket sales.
