

The Tale Twister

Cullman Lions Club

May 6, 2024

Program

No program, tonight. Lion President Chris Brooks was there running the show.

Lion Chris seems to have lost his arms.

Lion Chris did report that the Club's new officer installation is tentatively set for June 3rd. More details to follow.

Other Business

Lion Gary Murphee is recovering from some recent head injury, requiring 17 stiches and some broken ribs after taking a fall at Woodland. Lion Randy Kraft drove Lion Ron Seybold back and forth to Veterans Hospital for his chemo-treatment. Lion Randy reported that Lion Ron is in good spirits, but still has a tough road ahead in his recovery with 2 weeks on chemo and 2 weeks off.

Lion Javon Daniel provided feedback that the shred-a-thon was very successful with Lions assisting throughout the morning. He said he thought everyone had a good time. Ms., Jacqueline Schendel said that she has really counted on the Lions Club during this event and appreciated all that we do. At first there seemed at first to be a problem with the porta-potty, but Lion Dennis Berse quickly got everything straighten out with no back-up encountered.

Another great meal with main course of grilled steak and/or BBQ ribs from Freddy Day & crew.

Shred-A-Thon on Saturday with a good group of Lions: Javon Daniel, Steve Murphee, Jerry Smith, George Krigbaum, Morris Mangum, Dave Kratz, Criag Gadow, Quinn Jackson, Richard Gurley, and Jerry Bonner.

Lion Frank Odell recognized Lion David Peacock's completion of the new member Roundtables, finishing straight through without missing a single session and at the top of his class.

Lions George Krigbaum and Frank Odell congratulate Lion David Peacock.

Lion Don Smith shared the Alabama Lions Sight will be receiving $700,000 in funding from the State. This will keep that vital organization solvent well into next year.

Tale Twister Lion Richard White announced that the last two winners of the pot drawing at the close of our meetings gave up their winnings and told him just to roll those pots forward to the next week. At tonight's drawing Lion Richard, himself, was the winner, and he also rolled the pot forward. Therefore, the winner of the next pot will win 3 weeks of accumulate pot proceeds.

Upcoming Programs and Events

May 13: Our 2023-2024 Fair Queen, Ms. Avery Flint will be our speaker.

June 3: Tentative date for Club's new officer installation at Cullman Church of Christ. More details to follow.
